

RE: PURPOSE

PART 1: People helping people

INTRODUCTION

A church's mission statement is essentially its statement of purpose. It serves as a guide for all of the church's decision-making. Volunteers, leaders, guests and staff are generally the target of the mission. It should help those serving within the organization know what decisions and tasks best align with the mission of the church. A mission statement offers insight into what the primary purpose of the church is.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- 1. During the message Jason talked about repurposing things in life, what things come to your mind when you think of repurposing?
- 2. During the message Jason said most things in life have a shelf life, do you agree or disagree with that statement?
- 3. Red Rock Church has unveiled its new mission. It is "People helping people discover Jesus and follow Him fearlessly". Has anyone ever helped you in your journey to discover Jesus? Tell the group who has helped you and how they helped.
- 4. Read Ephesians 4:11-12. Based on these verses, whose responsibility is it to equip and whose responsibility is it to do the work of building up the church?
- 5. During the message Jason said that we all play a role in building up the body of Christ, the church. What role do you feel like God has uniquely gifted you to play? If you are not sure, would you be willing to discover it?
- 6. What can you do this week to begin to playing your role in the building up of the church? How can this group support you?

MOVING FORWARD

Don't let your lack of awareness hold you back from playing your role in building up the church. Leverage your role for the good of the whole so we can all reach the goal.

CHANGING YOUR MIND

So Christ himself gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the pastors and teachers, to equip his people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up. Ephesians 4:11-12 NIV
